DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Edamura et al in view of Turner. Edamura et al teach the claimed subject matter except for showing use of manual switch. Turner is applied for showing use of switches for time and temperature, in a grill system, used to effect changes to the cooking process, and use of the same is efficient and effective in the cooking process. In view of this teaching it would have been obvious to modify the Edamura system with the same to effect a more efficient cooking process.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 19-21 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. The claims contain allowable subject matter for specifying details of the cooking in the staging section of the grill, features not taught in the prior art of record.
